Indian Festivals

Unity in diversity

The background of the image features three raised fists of different skin tones (light, medium, and dark) against the Indian national flag. The flag's saffron, white, and green horizontal stripes are visible, with the Ashoka Chakra on the left side. The fists are positioned in the center, symbolizing unity and strength.

Representing various faiths , regional, and artistic traditions , these sites showcase a united , diverse, and pluratistic national identity

Literature And Ancient Texts
