

➤ Introduction

MS-CIT stands for Maharashtra State Certificate in Information Technology. It is one of the most popular computer literacy courses in Maharashtra. The course is provided by the Maharashtra Knowledge Corporation Limited (MKCL). MS-CIT helps students, employees, business people, and homemakers learn basic computer knowledge and digital skills.

The course includes topics such as computer fundamentals, internet usage, typing, Microsoft Office, digital payments, online services, and communication tools. It is designed to make people confident in using technology in daily life.

➤ Objectives of MS-CIT

1. To improve computer literacy among people.
2. To provide practical knowledge of computers and the internet.
3. To increase digital communication skills.
4. To help students and employees in education and jobs.
5. To create awareness about online safety and digital services.

➤ Importance of MS-CIT

MS-CIT is very important in today's digital world. Most work is now done online, and computer knowledge is necessary everywhere. This course helps people use technology easily and efficiently.

➤ Important Benefits:

- Improves computer knowledge.
- Helps in online education and office work.
- Increases job opportunities.
- Makes online communication easy.
- Helps in digital banking and online payments.
- Builds confidence in using computers and the internet.

➤ Features of MS-CIT- Basic computer education

- Practical learning method
- Internet and email training
- Microsoft Office knowledge
- Digital banking and online services
- Cyber security awareness
- Online examination system

➤ Subjects Included

1. Computer Basics
2. Operating System
3. Internet Usage
4. MS Word
5. MS Excel
6. MS PowerPoint
7. Digital Communication
8. Online Banking
9. Cyber Security